Six Merry Mice

Six merry little mice as lively as your please went out to see a whole day and came across a chee.

Said Mousie number one to House number two, let us go and take a nibble. Said number three, do.

Said number four, I never saw a chee so nice. I think I will take a nibble. Half a nibble, more of it, more.

Said number five, I never.

Dear [Name] and [Sibling],

Your letter came safely to Paltmatta. I will find you a little flower. I had fish for my Thanksgiving dinner. What did you have for your Thanksgiving dinner?
Culigan

Stagnaree

Spruce flowers

They are as good as many Culigan flowers here.

Mr. Patrick is a good old friend that has fish.

It is a good thing in which to keep and if you want to eat them, the stock bought a ten round red fish. A couple of days ago a snow, snow, and skunk came up and found one horse while we were washing clothes and dug the snow.
Feb. 18, Palmetto Feb. 1895 went Fishing & caught 15 sea bass. Earl heard we supplied them about 1500 after schooling for gale.
Feb. 19 went fishing in evening had caught 2000 fish & went home. Afternoon had duck for supper

Lake room was cold and snowy we had got in a lot of work.
Feb. 2 went out on boat. Feb. 3 went out again. Feb. 2 went after oysters. Only got two.
Mr. Darish took us fishing in his sailboat. Went down stream to the old cattle wharf but did not catch any fish and over to Calhoun's and caught five shad. Read I caught ten few & big rescued of the duck Feb. 22}
We camped out for two weeks and went fishing more little bass from a lot of shucks and had garder acting with them the first night. We caught a catfish and one in a creek and a stringer and had two catfish. For the first two days we had to sleep on the beach and one in the creek. Then we had a couple of B's and two dogs and quite a hole and a car that was.
One day Papa and I were walking. We left the shop and walked to the village near the river. We saw a bridge made of logs. It was very narrow and there was only one lane. It was built by a man named Stewart Brown.
that is my name in Chinese it passed into Esneayby December Santa Barbara. One day
Mr. Robinson told us that we could catch sheephead and dolphins at Balentia.
Mr. Robinson said
a sheephead has a clean taste like a cheesehead is cheese.
A sheephead is a black sheep with a large head. They were feeding off
of Point Bennett and always felt

\textit{we feel very cool in the heat of the day.}

This is a note from Eugene regarding some personal matters and possibly a reminder or a list of tasks. The handwriting is quite legible, and it appears to be a casual note rather than a formal letter.
